

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this final chapter, there are consist of the conclusion of the research and the suggestion that valuable for the several stakeholders. There are include as follows:

5.1 Conclusion

In general, students feel motivated and want to learn English due to internal and external factors. There are three internal factors that influence student interest through short story digital videos: health, motivation, and intelligence; there are three external factors that influence student interest: family, school, and teacher. All contribute to each other, where the family is the first environment that prepares students in a healthy mental and physical condition to be able to adapt to the school environment and gain knowledge. Through short story learning, they get motivated through their feelings of pleasure for what students like and also the moral message of the story that encourages students to like English and want to become more accomplished students. Although short stories also train literary intelligence, it depends on the intelligence of each student, who is different in capturing information and absorbing meaning.

Through digital short story videos, students are interested in pictures, storylines, interesting story content, discover new vocabulary related to everyday life and students are also interested in the characters in the story. The moral message contained in the video also has an influence on student's interest which then students will always remember, and imitate what students get from these characters. Indirectly, students have also remembered language. Digital short story videos are an interesting learning method, for that teachers must consider how to provide lessons. This fact should be considered by teachers who should design activities that help increase student interest, and increase student intelligence. Teachers must design their own learning activities that are suitable according to the character of their students

5.2 Suggestion

In order that specific instructional purpose of English language subject can be achieved, so the researcher wants to give some suggestion for English teacher and students. For English teacher: to make a better goal in English, the teacher must give motivation and encouragement for student in learning English and provide creative media to support in teaching so students are more interested in learning English. For students: English is easier if we interest to learn it. The more important in learning English is need more practice and always trying to improve themselves and how to learn in school and appreciate English lesson to get satisfactory learning outcomes and success in mastering the English lesson.
